

We are a registered charity wholly supported by donations from guests, visitors, friends, financial partners, local organisations and some grant making trusts.

These donations make your stay here possible as without them we would not be able to continue to run the House. In order for us to be able to offer hospitality to others we ask that you may also consider making a donation towards the costs of maintaining the House for the future.

We understand that giving these amounts may not always be possible for some people and we would be happy to discuss individual circumstances.

If you are a tax payer and can sign a Gift Aid form this will greatly enhance the value of your gift at no extra expense to yourself.

HOLY ROOD HOUSE

welcomes you to

'Creative Weaving and the Holy Weaver' Retreat

from

Friday 18th October to Sunday 20th October 2019

*With opportunity to stay from the 17th – 21st
October for further retreat space*

Led by Helen Warwick, and members of the Holy Rood community

This informal retreat will be a chance to explore the creative and rhythmical way of weaving, in many different forms. In the spacious art room, we will include nature weaving, patterns on fabric, weaving on frames and other weaving. It will be suitable for all levels and all materials will be provided. The weekend will include connecting with the Holy Weaver (an aspect of the Divine Feminine) through our quiet chapel spaces, discussion and the creative weaving.

Helen Warwick, a chaplain at Holy Rood, will be running the weekend. Helen runs retreats and creative writing groups and works creatively with people. She has published books on creativity and spirituality (see Kevin Mayhew's site at <http://www.kevinmayhew.com/finding-your-inner-treasure.html#.WHUBofmLTIU>). Other community members will be part of this weekend to listen and support.

Holy Rood House and Thorpe House offer a lovely space for creativity. We have a large garden and library and offer home-cooked food.

You are welcome to stay the night before and the night after the retreat. These two extra nights will be offered at a discount rate, to help you to get the best out of your retreat.

For more information please contact us in the office through email or phone, whichever is easiest for you.

Come and enjoy this lovely home and feel part of the community.
