

Making Relational Care Work for Older People

Exploring Innovation and Best Practice in Everyday Life

Jenny Kartupelis

Venue : Thirsk Town Hall

Thirsk, North Yorkshire YO7 1QS with optional Friday evening discussion at Holy Rood House

Presentations and conversations with experts on community-based and intergenerational models, the role and support of carers, innovations in technology, future national policy and leadership

MAKING RELATIONAL CARE WORK FOR OLDER PEOPLE PRACTICAL, PHILOSOPHICAL AND SPIRITUAL APPROACHES TO AGEING

FORUM ON 3RD AND 4TH SEPTEMBER 2021

FRIDAY 11.30AM – 5PM, SATURDAY 9.30AM TO 4.30PM

Are you professionally or personally involved in the care of older people, or perhaps planning your own future? Join us at this forum to hear what relational care means for the improved wellbeing of older people and carers; find out about best practice and innovation in residential and community settings; and look at the wider picture of policy and philosophy of care.

Keynote speakers: Professor Marian

Barnes:

Key issues for care ethics and older people

Professor John Swinton:

Philosophy of ageing and implications for care

Jenny Kartupelis MBE:

What is relational care? Supportive environments for mind, body and spirit

For more information www.holyroodhouse.org.uk/events email enquiries@holyroodhouse.org.uk Tel 01845 522580

Holy Rood House, Centre for Health and Pastoral Care,
10 Sowerby Rd, Thirsk, North Yorkshire YO7 1HX
Registered charity: 1099836

Confirmed speakers include:

Revd. Elizabeth Baxter, Executive Director of Holy Rood House, Centre for Health and Pastoral Care

Professor Marian Barnes, lead author of 'Re-imagining Old Age: Wellbeing, Care and Participation'

Stephen Burke, Co-founder of United for All Ages and CEO of Hallmark Care Homes Foundation

Jenny Kartupelis, author of two recent books on development and practice of relational care

Nick Kelly, Special Advisor to Baroness Greengross

Charlotte Kirin, Community Champion, Cambridgeshire County Council

Dr Lorraine Morley, Lead, Age Tech Accelerator UK

Professor John Swinton, Chair in Divinity and Religious Studies, University of Aberdeen

The fee for the event is £95, which includes refreshments and finger buffet on Friday and Saturday. There is an optional Friday evening discussion with drinks at Holy Rood House at 7.30pm.

Do join us! Please email Carolyn on enquiries@holyroodhouse.org.uk to register your interest. We will then send you payment details, the full agenda, and other information. Do contact us on this email if you have any queries. Please book by 10th August, to secure your place. Thank you.

Thirsk is a historic market town, home to the James Herriot Museum. There are local hotels for overnight accommodation.

Holy Rood House, Centre for Health and Pastoral Care, is a community of hospitality working on the margins of society. Our continual therapeutic and theological exploration and reflection, underpins the work of the Charity.

Holy Rood House, Centre for Health and Pastoral Care

